Every bond you break
Every step you take
I'll be watching you

Every single day
Every word you say
Every game you play
Every night you stay

My poor heart aches, with every breath you take

And every move you make
And every vow you take
Every smile you fake

At Seventeen

Dm7

G7

It isn't all it seems at seventeen

A brown eyed girl in hand-me-downs

Whose name I never could pronounce said

Pity, please, the ones who serve

They only get what they deserve

The rich-related home-town queen

Marries into what she needs

With a guarantee of company and haven for the elderly

Remember those who win the game

Lose the love they sought to gain

In debentures of quality

And dubious integrity

Their small town eyes will gape at you in

Dull surprise when payment due

Exceeds accounts received at seventeen

To those of us who knew the pain

Of valentines that never came

And those whose names were never called

When choosing sides for basketball

It was long ago and far away

The world was younger than today

And dreams were all they gave for free

To ugly duckling girls like me

We all play the game and when we dare

To cheat ourselves at solitaire

Inventing lovers on the phone

Repenting other lives unknown

That call and say, "come dance with me"

And murmur vague obscenities

At ugly girls like me, at seventeen

You know what it's like to be nameless
Want them to know what your name is
'Cause see when I was younger I would say
